REV. MR. FARR CONCLUDES DESCRIPTION OF FOREIGN TRAVELS

Last Article Tells of the Holy Land and of Places of Biblical Fame Visited. Tourists Charged to Visit Nearly All Places Sacred and Hallowed in Minds of Christian Peoples. Some Observations of Trip as a Whole.

GLIMPSSES OF THE HOLY LAND.

By W. E. FARR

We thought it best to take the life of Jesus and visit his birth-place, following up his life in chronological order from the cradle to the grave and ascension. Therefore we first visited Bethlehem. It is a small village with a magnificent church erected over the inn, the birth place of Christ. Our guide told us this church was built by the mother of Constantine in 330 A. D. It is a very striking building; as you entered the front door you were impressed with the massive pillars on each side. The thing that puzzled me whether it could be possible that Jesus was born where we were shown, because we had to go down a number of flights of steps into a very dark place—the only lights we had being the candles we carried in our hands. However, from a spiritual point of view it does not make any difference whether Christ was born in the exact spot we were shown, the fact is he was born—and that is the supposed historical spot or place, with the approval of Heaven and earth and the skies above and the angels in glory.

We were annoyed no little by the many street urchins and dirty folks, men and women I guess they were as they were dressed alike, all of whom were anxious to tell us something because they wanted money. The guide had to force them away before we could really enjoy the visit. What is true here is true of every place I shall mention hereafter and if you do not steel yourself against such cattle they will paralyze your spiritual view of the great historical spots in connection with the life of Jesus.

River Jordan—Baptism of Jesus.

On the way out from Jerusalem to the River Jordan we passed the Samaritan Inn; after passing we came to Eliza's spring. This spring is within the ruined walls of the old city of Jericho. As the reader will remember, these walls fell down after the children of Israel had marched around them once a day for six days and seven times on the seventh day. Within a short distance from this spot stands the Mountain of Temptation. Our attention was directed to the place where Jesus stood when the devil tried to tempt him, Matthew: fourth chapter, first eleven verses. From here we went to the River Jordan and viewed the place where Jesus was baptized by John; the River Jordan is here about a hundred and fifty feet wide. Our guide told us there was not a shadow of doubt in the minds of the people who visit here or who live in all this country, but that Jesus was put under the water by John. The fact is if you read the third chapter of Matthew there you could see its simple teachings. After leaving here we drove to the Dead Sea. As the reader will remember, into this Sea the River Jordan empties. There is very little historical value connected with the Dead Sea—it is like many members, it stays dead all the time.

Our attention was directed to Mt. Nebo, where Moses was permitted to stand and view the promised land; from here we could also see Mt. Gilead and the mount Moab. On our way back to Jerusalem, about two miles before reaching there, we saw the grave of Lazarus, where Jesus raised him from the dead. Read the eleventh chapter of John. We were also shown the old home of Simon the Leper, where Jesus was anointed, and the place about where the old fig tree stood when Jesus pronounced the curse upon it.

NAZARETH.

This little city nestles on the side of the Mount of Precipitation where it is said the people sought to cast our Saviour down and destroy him, Luke, fourth chapter, twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth and thirtieth verses. I suggest that you begin with the fourteenth verse and you will better understand these scriptures.

Nazareth is a pretty place, with about seven thousand people. The residences and business houses are nearly all new or modern; it is situated on the slope of one of the hills which enclose a valley. This vale, which is about a mile long and half a mile wide, resembles a circular basin shut in by mountains. It is a pleasant spot; one might almost think the mountains which enclose it had risen around it to guard it from intrusion. We saw the supposed home of Joseph and Mary and the workshop of Joseph. Whether they be the exact places or not does not matter.

You must pay in order to view these places on the inside, and this is another thing that mars the pleasure of your visit, for the Roman Catholics and the Greek Orthodox Churches have commercialized absolutely the spots associated with the life of Christ and the heart of the Christian rebels against such a practice. As you watch the appearance and mannerisms of the priests who have these places in charge you must be very careful or you will find yourself in the shadow of doubts, as your mind sweeps back to the time when Jesus walked and talked among men. My honest conviction is that the government should own every one of these places and that no religious people should be permitted to commercialize them. Tourists spend thousands of dollars to reach Palestine and they should not be annoyed and forced to pay to visit these sacred spots. It is not the amount of money it takes to get in that we rebel against—it is the principle of the thing.

To back up my argument I will give you an example: The place of the crucifixion, the burial and the resurrection of Christ which is accepted by the two above named churches has on it a tremendous building called a church. This is under the control of these two denominations, and their hatred for each other is so intense that the front doors of this building are locked at night and unlocked in the morning by an outsider who carries the keys because neither will agree to the other having them. Our guide told us the above story.

Our next visit was to Tiberias. This is a modern town located on the banks of the Sea of Galilee and has a population of ten thousand people. Nearly every home in it is either modern or has been done over to make it appear so. Part of the old walls that were around the city two thousand years ago are still in evidence.

SEA OF GALILEE.

This sea, which is the most sacred sheet of water in the world, is a hundred and ten miles from Jerusalem. We chartered a little boat and spent

Revenue Agent Victor In Suit

United States Supreme Court Hands Down Decision Monday Holding that It Had No Jurisdiction. $600,000 to go into State Treasury.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 9.—The litigation instituted in December 1920 by State Revenue Agent, Stokes Robertson, charging something like 60 fire insurance companies doing business in Mississippi with a violation of the Anti-Trust laws of the State, was dismissed yesterday by the United States Supreme court for want of jurisdiction, which leaves the suit where the State Supreme court left it, with a judgment of nearly $800,000 against the insurance companies. When the case was decided by the State's highest court, the insurance companies appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court. The termination of the suit is a victory for Stokes Robertson, and means that something like $600,000 will be placed in the state treasury and that the revenue agent will get a commission of nearly or quite $200,000, which is 20 per cent of the amount collected as fixed by law.

No case for years has been so much discussed as the one which terminated yesterday. It was one of the big issues in the last State primary and no doubt had much to do with defeating Mr. Robertson for re-election, because of the sentiment which had been created that capital and large business enterprises were not safe in Mississippi, hence it is surmised that the Revenue Agent is regarding the decision with more than ordinary satisfaction, and had it been made before the primaries last summer, might have changed the result of the election of one officer as the voters generally are usually pleased with getting money which they think will lessen tax burdens. The first litigation involving any large amount was instituted by Wirt Adams, the first revenue agent, against the I. C. railroad company. This suit netted the State about $1,000,000 and was used in building the present Capitol.

The fire insurance companies "ran" out of the State soon after the Revenue Agents brought this suit, but they ran back after a while.

MILKING CONTEST A NOTABLE FEATURE

Two Day Contest Will Decide Superiority of Milk Cows. "Town Cow" Will Compete Against "Country Cow." Good Cash Awards to Winners.

Will the Milking Contest, to be held during the Grenada Fair, be a vindication of the old back yard milk cow? Or, will the farm cow who produces her butter fat thru the year prove the heaviest producer over the course of two days?

Any cow may enter and the race goes to the one which shows the greatest amount of weighed butter for the two day period. The scales show no favorites and various ideas are advanced as to whose cow will take first, and the ones which will be "in the money"

There are several good cows around Grenada alone being milked for family use. Possibly some of them would prove better than some which come from the country. The managers of the contest say that there will not be a large number of representatives from the country and no telling whatever as to where the prizes may settle. It will be a chance of the year for the placid

Mission Will Close Sunday Night

Services Begun Last Sunday at Episcopal Church by Rev. Philip G. Davidson of Greenville. Some Powerful Sermons Being Preached.

The Mission begun at All Saints Episcopal church in Grenada last Sunday morning and which is being conducted by the Rev. Philip G. Davidson of Greenville, is still in progress and will not conclude until Sunday night. The only break in the services, was on Wednesday when Mr. Davidson was called to Greenville to conduct a funeral.

The greater part of Mr. Davidson's sermons have been apparently directed to church members with the purposing of awakening in them a sense of christian duty and their obligation to the church. He has very greatly emphasized the need of an aroused laity. He has sought to lay upon the hearts and the minds of his hearers that the work in God's kingdom could not be carried on as God wanted it done by the ministry alone. He has sought to bring home the idea, in a number of his sermons, that too many were practicing a sit down religion, or a "let George do it" religion.

As was previously announced, his general theme has been the "Power of God." His first sermon was a powerful and persuasive plea for men and women to get to know that they are sinners and that Christ is the only one through and by whom they can get forgiveness for sin.

Mr. Davidson's sermon on the "Power and attributes of God" was a beautiful and forceful discussion of the grandeur, the beauty, the glory, the magnificence, the love, the sympathy, the patience, the meekness and forbearance of the Holy One.

His sermon on "The Bible, its authority and inspiration" was no doubt somewhat prompted by the self-anointed wise ones of the present day, who claim to be making so many discoveries about the scriptures and who are asserting that so much of the book is either fiction or simply historical and only to be regarded as other history.

Mr. Davidson has been using those hymns common in missions. What little he has said that might be termed doctrinal has not been dogmatically stated at all. He has simply stated the Episcopalian interpretation of the Scriptures and what those of that faith believe as to the beginning of their church.

He is a man of unusual pulpit powers. He is one of unusual breadth and is undoubtedly imbued with a sincere and earnest desire to get men and women to live the life Christ would have them live. He is convincing and persuasive in his utterances and has made a fine impression on the community. Those who have not availed themselves of the opportunity to hear him have missed not only a spiritual feast but an intellectual treat as well.

eyed matrons of the back lot to assert their worth.

The catalogue of the fair gives all details of the contest, which will be easy to carry out. The prizes begin with a $75.00 cash award, running down to a fifth place paying $15.00 cash. For two days milking the prizes are higher than any fair, outside of the larger state fairs. This will be a notable feature of the Grenada Fair and a new enterprise for the Grenada district.

FORMER GRENADIAN GIVES INFORMATIVE DATA ON TAXATION

Mr. Chester H. Brown Answers Questions of Sentinel Editor Relative to Assessments in Asheville and Buncombe County, North Carolina. Gives Bonded Indebtedness for Various Purposes and Tax Levies. Editor Hoped to Aid Sentinel Readers with Their Problems.

The Editor of The Sentinel received recently from Mr. C. H. Brown a newspaper clipping which gave the assessment of the property in the City of Asheville, N. C. and in the County of Buncombe, where Asheville is located, and also the tax levy. There was such a wide divergence from what we of Grenada and of Grenada County, and in most of the counties are having to pay, that we were prompted to write Mr. Brown for some additional information as "to how they did it." Our purpose, primarily, was to get some information that might be helpful to our own people.

In this connection it is well to observe that the State of North Carolina some thirty-five years ago had just about as grave economic and tax problems as Mississippi has today. It was in that period that North Carolina was pinning her faith to "all cotton and tobacco," and blindly planting the same land again and again every year in cotton and in tobacco, but today, North Carolina is rotating her crops and is by no means pinning her faith to just two things, and in 1919, that State took fourth place in the production of farm and agricultural products and still holds it.

Fifty years ago, Mississippians going back to North Carolina regarded it as a worn out State.

The farms of Buncombe County, and this largely obtains throughout the State, consists of tracts of from 80 to 160 acres, and the man who owns two or three hundred acres is regarded as rich. In that County they raise cotton, tobacco and corn as well as hay and other provender. There is much dairying and cattle breeding. The sheep industry there is getting to be a big item. The hill sides and uplands which are not fitted for pasturing of cows or for farming are utilized for sheep. In the 14 counties adjoining Buncombe, including Buncombe, the sheep population has increased in two years from 46,000 to 278,000.

Then, too, North Carolina is profiting by her orchards. Big returns are being realized from apples and other fruit crops.

In the years ago, no farmer in Mississippi was regarded as being well fixed unless he had a good apple and peach orchard, but orchards are very nearly things of the past now. This comes about because of the want of care and attention.

Now we give these facts in the hope that it may be worth something to Sentinel readers. Here our taxes are increasing, our population is decreasing and a sort of business chaos obsesses our farmers as well as many other classes.

It will be noted from Mr. Brown's letter that the tax levy for the city of Asheville is only 1.10 per cent and for the County of Buncombe 8-10 of one per cent, while the tax levy for Grenada County 3.7 per cent.

Residents of the City of Asheville, N. C. will pay only 1.9 per cent taxes while residents of Grenada will pay nearly, or quite, 7 per cent taxes. It will be observed that Mr. Brown states that property is assessed there at about 65 per cent of its value, which is about the same ratio, perhaps a little less, followed here.

It will be noted that Mr. Brown states that property next to or near hard surfaced highway is assessed higher than other property.

It is a well accepted fact that with farming conditions what they are and with the boll weevil staring every cotton farmer in the face, there must be a change in farm conditions and in farm methods, otherwise bankruptcy is not far around the corner. The people of Grenada County and of Mississippi cannot spend like North Carolina and other more prosperous states unless they are willing to make the sacrifice to follow the plans that have brought prosperity to those people. We have the soil, the climate, the water and everything else seemingly that Nature could do, but we have got to change some things.

Below is a copy of our letter to Mr. Brown and his reply. It will be noted that he answers our questions by number:

"I thank you for the newspaper clipping about property values and assessments in your County and in the City of Asheville. I am writing you for some additional information in the hope that I may glean something from what your people are doing which I can pass along to our people that may be of value to us.

"I observe that the total assessment of Asheville is given at $70,046,120, or an increase over last year of $15,000,000—how about the increase; is that just on paper or is it actual? Wish you would state about what per cent of the total value of your City property does the assessment show?

"I note that the county tax rate is given at 84 cents and that it is stated that it will probably be only 80 cents for the next fiscal year. Does the 80 cents mean that much per one hundred dollars of assessed property?

"If not taxing your time too much, will you please answer the following questions, which I may want to use in the columns of the Sentinel?

"1. How is your property assessed, by whom, and who places the valuation, the owner or the assessing officer?

"2. What is the bonded indebtedness of your town, and what were the bonds issued for?

"3. What is the bonded indebtedness of your County and what were the bonds issued for?

"4. What are the necessary legal steps there for issuing bonds, and, if the issuance of bonds is left to the electorate, are those without property allowed to vote on the question of bond issues?

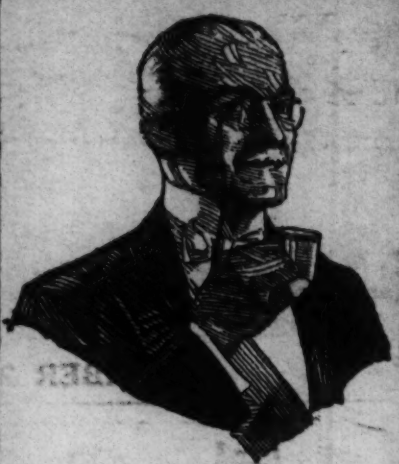

"5. What is the average size farm in your County and about what is the land assessed per acre? In this connection, state, please, if land adjacent to your standard or hard surfaced roads is assessed any higher than land lying remote from the road?

"6. What is the population of your County and its area in square miles, and how many miles of standard roads has the County?

"7. What method has North Carolina of penalizing the property owner who hides out his property from the assessing authorities or who surreptitiously or wilfully evades the taxing powers? In other words have you anything similar to our State Revenue Agent?

"8. What is your contract rate of interest? Is money on deposit exempt from taxation?

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 14

ISRAEL, A MISSIONARY NATION

LESSON TEXT—Exod. 19:1-6; Isa. 43:9-11; Isa. 45:20-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests and an holy nation."—Exod. 19:6.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Kindness to His People.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Why God Chose Israel.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Mission of the Chosen People.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Israel's Missionary Call.

I. Israel's Exalted Position (Exod. 19:1-6).

The descendants of Abraham had now become a multitude and the time had come to organize them into a nation. In order to enable them to see what a wonderful privilege was theirs, God displayed His majesty on Mount Sinai. In His message to them, He gave them a look backward and forward.

1. A Review of Their Past History (v. 4). He reminds them of what He had done to the Egyptians when He brought them out of their cruel bondage, and that His divine care over them had been as that of an eagle over her young. He had not merely brought them out of Egyptian bondage, but unto Himself. God's salvation is not merely deliverance from sin, but a union with Himself.

2. Promises of Future Greatness (vv. 5, 6). On condition of obedience to His voice, and faithfulness to their covenant obligations, He promised them a peculiar relationship to Him. This relationship is three-fold:

(1) The Lord's Peculiar Treasure Above All People. This is the treasure of Matt. 13:44. If this is recognized, the parable is quite clear. Failure to allow Scripture to interpret Scripture results in confusion.

(2) A Kingdom of Priests. "A Kingdom whose citizens are all priests living wholly in God's service and ever enjoying the right of access to Him." In this kingdom there is united sacerdotal privilege and royal dignity.

(3) A Holy Nation. A nation set apart for the work of God. Realizing this, they would be impelled to a standard of living which would be worthy of their high calling. Separation from sin and a positive stand for the right would always be demanded. The failure of this chosen nation is largely the explanation of the world's distress. Had Israel shown the nations the way to go, they would not have gone so far into sin.

II. Israel's Pressing Obligation (Isa. 43:9-11).

1. God's Challenge to the Heathen Nations (v. 9). They were asked to assemble their witnesses to see if they were able to make known the future as God had done through the prophets of Israel. They are either to make good their predictions or to acknowledge the truth as declared by God's prophets, namely, that God is the only God.

2. Israel, God's Witness (v. 10). This nation had been brought so clearly into touch with God, had so many times experienced His mighty hand to deliver, that they were competent witnesses. Not only the nation was a witness, but the prophets from that nation had so many times witnessed and their predictions were so completely fulfilled that the whole world knew that God was the one and only God and Savior. The only way the world can know that God is a forgiving God is through the witnessing of His redeemed people. How sorely this testimony is needed! How miserable has been Israel's failure!

III. Israel's Message (Isa. 45:20-22).

The message which Israel was to give was that God was the Savior of all the nations. Israel misinterpreted and misapplied this message. They claimed Him as their God and denied Him to the heathen. Though they have thus failed and the world is in darkness because of it, one day they shall go to the ends of the earth with it, and the result will be the ushering in of the Golden Age of which men of all ages have dreamed.

1. The Idolatrous Nations Are Invited to Draw In.

2. They Are Challenged to Bring Their Reasons for Worshipping Idols in the Light of the Fact That God the Savior Was the Only God.

3. They Are Given an Invitation to Look Unto God. They were not asked to do something to be saved, but to look to the Savior. Sinners today need only to look to Christ. What a wonderful day when Israel shall declare this message to all nations in the power of the Holy Spirit!

God's Promise. God hath promised pardon to him that repenteth, but he hath not promised repentance to him that sinneth.—St. Anselm.

Friendship. Friendship is the nearest thing we know to what religion is. God is love.—Henry Drummond.

A Fool's Coat. A fool may have his coat embroidered with gold, but it is a fool's coat still.—Rivarel.

ORIGIN OF THE NAMES OF THE MONTHS

Roman mythology and actuality have combined to supply the names of the months.

January, the first month, was named in honor of Janus, son of Apollo. Its symbolic gem is the hyacinth.

February derives its name from Februa, or feast, to the manes of deceased persons. The amethyst is its symbol.

March, the first month of the Roman year, is named after Mars, the god of war—symbolized by the emerald.

April, derived from Aprillis, meaning "to open" signifies the opening of spring. The diamond is its symbol.

The name May comes from Maia, mother of Mercury. It is also symbolized by the diamond.

June was named in honor of Juno, wife of Jupiter. An agate is its symbol.

In August the Roman emperor Augustus is honored with an onyx.

September comes from septem, meaning seven, for it was formerly the seventh month. A chrysolite is its emblem.

October, in the same manner, takes its name from Octo, the eighth, and places its symbolic reliance upon the onyx.

Novem, in Latin meaning nine, gives the name to November. A topaz is its emblem.

EXCEPTIONAL RIDING COMFORT

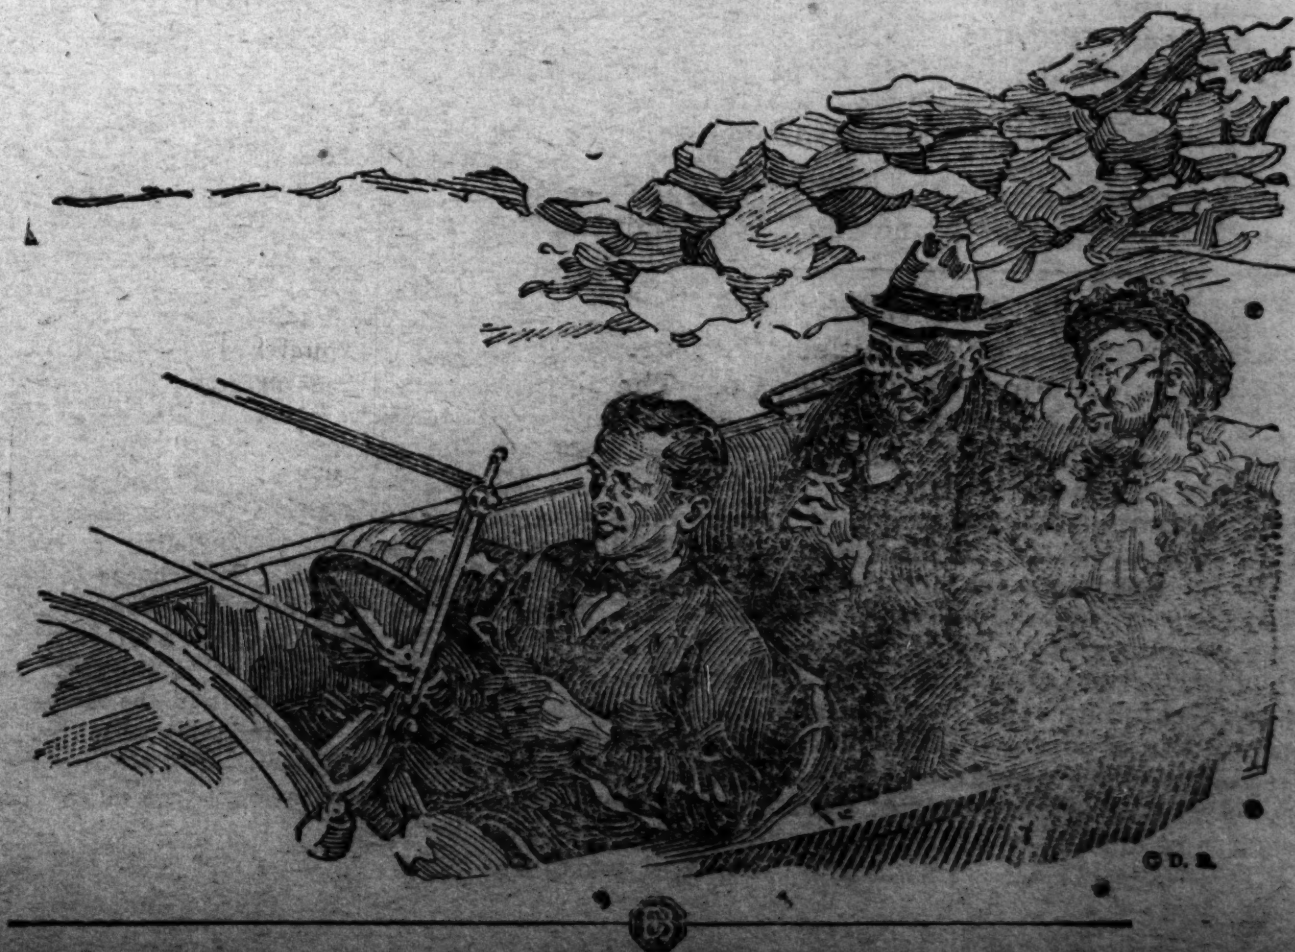

The new Dodge Brothers Touring Car is exceptionally comfortable to ride in; it is good looking; and it incorporates many important refinements of detail.

The body is longer and lower, eliminating side sway, affording more leg room, and enhancing the beauty of the lines.

Deeper seats, long underslung rear springs and longer front springs, give ample assurance that cross country touring can be enjoyed without weariness or fatigue.

Yet with these improvements, and many others, it is still fundamentally the same car—built on the same chassis and powered by the same sturdy engine.

FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES BUCKLED ACROSS BARREL

Figuratively speaking, the decision of the United States Supreme Court Monday relative to the much cussed and discussed suit against certain fire insurance companies, means that the said companies have been laid across a barrel, the seat of their trousers made taut and a barrel stave applied.

The highest legal tribunal has spoken, and the insurance companies lose. The insurance companies tried everything known to brains and money. They tried brow-beating; all sorts of propaganda was circulated; they threatened the people of the State "with no fire protection" and did take up their doll rags and get out of the State in order, if possible, to get what Mississippi assets they had beyond the reach of the courts; they did not fail to capitalize the attitude of a silly Governor towards the suit; they said they could not write insurance unless allowed to apply rates as they had been doing and divers schemes and methods were used to befuddle the minds of the public, and at the last they succeeded pretty well, but now, that the courts have had their final say, there is nothing else for them to do except to pay the fine of $750,000.00 assessed against the some fifty odd companies and the court costs.

It will be remembered that it was heralded from one end of the State to the other that the fire insurance companies had paid out $1.05 for every dollar they had collected in Mississippi and that writing fire risks in this State was a losing business anyway, and strange to say many well informed, intelligent people swallowed this statement with almost tears of sympathy, yet when the case was passed upon by the State Supreme Court and when that tribunal raised the ban so that all companies which desired could return to the State, many of the companies did not wait to write to get back into the State but wired to get back—being philanthropists and endowed with no monetary designs whatever, they wanted to get back to Mississippi so that they could lose some more money.

The truth is they never lost money. The truth is that the average fire insurance company which had been doing business in the State had accumulated money about as fast as almost any other business enterprise in all the land. Fire insurance companies are money makers.

Our position was all the time that it was not a matter of who filed the suit or whether the practice of fixing rates had been overlooked or passed over by officials for a number of years, but that it was strictly a matter of law. Legislatures of years ago had made the law, and if it were a law, we could not see how an official could be censured for trying to execute it. We thought we were right then. We think so today.

The approximate amount which the suit will put into the State treasury is $600,000.00 and Stokes Robertson will get his commission for digging up the amount about $200,000.—a commission fixed by law—out of which he will have to pay his attorneys and expenses incident to prosecuting the suit.

The six hundred thousand dollars will go into the treasury when it is badly needed and there are some who will change their minds about Stokes being such a menace.

THE FRIENDLY SMILE AND CHEERFUL GREETING WELL WORTH CULTIVATING.

In town boosting cheerfulness and cordiality have an important part. Too often people permit business cares and worries to cause them to forget the stranger within the gates and the friend who passes by. Many a man has gained a reputation for grumpiness who merely has not thought to be cordial. A smile carries one much further than a frown. The visitor in a city is favorably impressed if the people he sees on the streets are cheerful and smiling. He at once gains the impression that it must be a good town which has a cheerful people.

The visitor naturally thinks that a city which offers welcome in so conspicuous a way means it. If the people he meets smile and are cheerful he at once realizes that they are a people worth while and the town one worth looking over. The cordial greeting with an accompanying smile of welcome, helps more than anything else to give people a good impression of a place. The smile attracts and the frown repels. Grumpiness gains nothing for a person. Most people would prefer even the "Cheerful Idiot" to the "Chronic Grouch."

SWIMMING A CREEK AND "SWELL HEAD."

Even a century ago, it seems that one politician did not hesitate to play the arts of the game against another, and that the voters then were swayed by their prejudices and that the "stuck up" man was no less in favor then than now.

It is said that Powhatan Ellis, afterwards a supreme court judge, a United States Senator and a federal judge, when once attempting to cross a creek, which he did not know was swimming, on horseback, lost his saddle bags, and that Plummer, a political opponent, published the following advertisement in a Monticello paper:

"Lost by Honorable Powhatan Ellis, in crossing Tallahale, the following articles: 6 lawn handkerchiefs; 6 cambric shirts; 2 night shirts; 1 nightcap; 1 pr. stays; 4 pr. silk stockings; hair brush, flesh-brush, clothes brush, razors and dressing glass, pomatum, perfume, etc."

The Plummer advertising, it is said, killed Ellis east of Pearl river as the citizenry wanted no "Natchez dandyism."

"21 REASONS WHY."

We have before us a booklet entitled "21 reasons why" issued by the Mississippi Fire Insurance Co. The prime purpose of the issuance of the booklet was no doubt to call attention to the great loss to the country by fires and to teach people how not to have fires.

Another purpose for the issuance of the booklet was to give the essays of those who participated in the $3,000. essay contest put on by this stalwart company to stimulate attention to fire prevention. The first winner was a college student; seven winners were high school graduates; seven winners were high school students below the graduating class and seven were Grammar school students.

The contest was a commendable piece of advertising and but in keeping with the aggressive and progressive policy of this big concern which has assets of over one million dollars surplus account of over a half million dollars. May the Mississippi Fire Insurance Co. continue to grow and prosper.

FROM COAST TO COAST.

When an army flier made the distance from Atlantic to Pacific in one hop, taking only a little more than an entire day, and when another beginning as the sun arose over Long Island failed of landing beside the Pacific before sundown of the same day only because of a minor accident a few hundred miles from his goal, when the sun was still high in the heavens, the question of bringing San Francisco and New York into substantially twenty-four hours of each other was definitely and finally settled.

A daily mail between New York and San Francisco, arriving only at about a day later, will be worth all it costs to the business interests of the country. It will be worth the vast outlay for 500,000,000 candle-power beacons, and the lesser lights installed to guide the fliers at night. It is the natural, the logical and the splendid refinement of that wonder of twenty-five years ago, the rural free delivery.

DAZZLING AUTO HEADLIGHTS

Driving into the dazzling lights of an oncoming car is dangerous business—dangerous alike to the dazzler and the dazzled. And it is so unnecessary. To dim the lights of a car is so simple, and easy a task, that it seems that the danger involved by not doing so would compel the motorist approaching another car at night to take this simple precaution against the possibility of accident to his own car as well as the cars of others. It should not take a law to bring about the dimming of headlights. Common decency demands that a motorist practice this simple rule of night driving etiquette, for it is etiquette, and good manners are just as essential on the road as in the ball-room.

LOSS BY FIRE.

Statistics show that during the year 1922, 15,000—Americans lost their lives by fire—an average of one every half hour; and that during the same period, 17,000 more were seriously injured or permanently injured by flames and that $521,860,000—or $993. every minute—in property went up in flames in the same year.

This week, beginning last Sunday, was set apart, as "fire prevention week," the idea being to cultivate the minds of both the young and old as to the cost of indifference or carelessness in handling fires or what may start a fire.

The farmer reads about prosperity: he comes to town and he sees the high-powered automobile and everything indicating ease in a business way—he does not know that what he thinks is "ease" is deceptive—and then thinks about how he has followed the plow and the low price of what he sells and the high price of what he must buy, and he very naturally concludes that there is something wrong somewhere and that there is too much "fleecing" going on.

As we have stated many times before, it seems to us that it would be a good business proposition if some place could be secured where the man from the country could hitch his horse or leave his wagon or his buggy when he comes to town. It looks too much like "all arrangements" for the automobile owner but none for the old horse and wagon."

Is it not about time for the farmers of Mississippi were beginning to take an inventory looking to a change in their business methods? The boll weevil is here, but besides this pest, there are other things that need to be considered. And what is said of the farmers, applies to other classes.

"WATCH ME GIVE HIM THE DUST."

Yes, there were a number looking on when you gave "him the dust," and a goodly number more looking on when they laid you under five feet of dust.

The Houston, (Texas) Post says that if all the "bull" turned loose in this country could be offered for sale at beef markets that porter house steak would be five cents a pound.

It will soon be "tax-cussing" time, but before you begin it, ask yourself the question if "I am not just as much to blame about the amount of my taxes as any one else?"

Heard an intelligent citizen say just the other day that Grenada was dropping down a little in the care of its streets since the dissolution of the Civic League.

A shed where the farmers could display their country produce for sale would be a mighty fine thing both for the farmers and for our merchants.

We know some who preach "trade at home" who buy several hundred miles away from Grenada without trying the Grenada market.

The State health authorities still place Grenada at the head of the list among the cleanest and prettiest towns in Mississippi.

TO THE FRIENDS WHO MAY BE INTERESTED IN THE GRENADA HOSPITAL

We are all rejoicing over the fact that the Hospital will soon be opened in Grenada—an institution which will meet a long felt need in this section and just to show the usual interest and encouragement that such institutions receive in other towns, we are planning a miscellaneous shower of household articles necessary in setting up housekeeping, such as: household linen, cooking utensils, scarfs, doilies, vases for cut flowers, serving trays, etc., or canned goods, jelly preserves, etc., or anything you choose to bring or send will be most acceptable.

We take this means of notifying the friends and of inviting all who care to have a part in the shower to come to the Hospital next Friday, the 19th from 3 to 6 o'clock p. m. for a real house-warming time together.

Let us bring our gifts and good cheer and bid the Hospital God speed for the relief and comfort of sick and suffering humanity.

The Chinese Plan is Best Says Authority

"Four thousand years of civilization have taught the Chinese the most logical way to preserve their health," said a well-known physician, a few days ago. "Instead of waiting until they get sick to call in the doctor they pay one a salary to keep them well."

"The trouble with most of us nowadays is that we go along disregarding our health, until, bang! one of these days, our system goes to sending in bills, and then we call in the physician and sometimes want him to undo in a few days what we have been doing to tear down our constitution for years."

The old saying "a stitch in time saves nine" applies with full force to the maintenance of our health.

By stopping occasionally to recuperate our health, energy and vitality through rest, recreation, and the use of effective aids to health there is no doubt that we would add at least ten years to our life.

The effectiveness and merit of Allison's Wells water as a tonic and as a means of relieving that run-down, tired-out feeling which is often the result of malaria, or stomach, kidney, liver, or bladder troubles, is clearly shown by the hundreds of statements from prominent men and women, who have quick and easy relief and help through the consistent use of this wonderful water when they were suffering from any of these distressing ailments.

The low rates, especially for families, which prevail at the famous Mississippi watering place, known as Allison's Wells, makes a vacation possible for families of limited means; and the splendid service and cooking and excellent accommodations makes it an attractive place for those whose means enable them to command just what they want.

Dancing, golf and tennis are among the amusements which help to make your visit more pleasant. More information, if you want it, in an attractive booklet, will be mailed on request.

CLUDES DESCRIPTION OF FOREIGN TRAVELS

half a day on the bosom of this sea. It is twelve miles wide and sixteen miles long. By the side of this sea is located the place which is said to be the old home of Mary Magdalene; our guide assured us that she at one time occupied that house or one on the same plot of ground. We went to the North side where the River Jordan empties into the Sea of Galilee; our boat stopped there for a short while and the guide pointed out different places where Jesus did special work, such as feeding the five thousand and many other wonderful miracles. It was upon this part of the Sea of Galilee that Jesus walked on the water. Read Matthew, fourth chapter, twenty-second through the thirty-third verses. I also suggest that you read the entire eighth chapter of Matthew.

A short distance from here we landed at the old historical site of Capernaum where during the life of Christ there was, beyond question, a city of considerable size; however, there is now only one little house where this ancient city stood and this is near the ruins of the old Jewish Synagogue where Jesus taught the multitudes, and especially the disciples. This is the place where the man was let down through the roof of the building and healed by our Lord. On this sea Jesus taught his disciples in a very effective way, and here he called Peter, James and John, his three most intimate friends and disciples; also Matthew and Andrew. Read Matthew, fourth chapter, from the eighteenth through the twenty-first verse.

Really most of the ministerial life of Jesus was spent around this sea. Since this is true, it is impossible to speak of all the wonderful miracles and teachings of Jesus, so I will ask you to see what Matthew, Mark and Luke have to say about it. This is one place that I regretted very much to leave, because of its great importance to the Christian religion.

From this sea you could easily view great Mt. Hermon, thirty miles away, which is the highest of all the mountains in Palestine. We were told that on its summit the snow never melted. This is one of the historical spots in the life of Christ, for it was on this mountain that He took James, John and Peter and was transfigured before them, and it was there that Moses and Elias appeared, and where God spoke his approval of his Son, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." Read Matthew, seventeenth chapter, first ten verses.

JERUSALEM.

The first place visited was the Jewish Wailing Wall. Here we saw scores of Jews reading their old Bible and crying aloud. Our hearts were stirred with emotion as we witnessed this scene. Actually there are holes in the wall where these people have leaned against and wept upon it. Around this place are many, many beggars. These things would never have been had the whole Jewish race embraced Jesus as the Messiah.

We next visited the old Mohammedan Mosque which is known as Mount Moriah, where once stood the greatest temple ever erected by man—King Solomon's Temple. Inside of this mosque we were shown a huge rock which the Mohammedans claim is the rock on which Abraham offered up his son Isaac. This rock is 30x30 feet and as white as snow. The material in this Mohammedan mosque, as the observer readily recognizes—especially if he be a Muslim, came from the ruins of King Solomon's Temple. It was in this temple that Mary and Joseph found Jesus. Read Luke, second chapter, forty-first to fiftieth verses. Time and space forbid my saying all I could like to about King Solomon's Temple.

We came to the Beautiful Gate, so spoken of in Acts, chapter three, first nine verses; this is where the lame man was healed. The next was Stephen's Gate; near this spot is located Pilate's Hall; also the Pool of Bethesda, the description of which is found in the fifth chapter of John. We were also shown the Golden Gate; outside of the walls opposite this gate there are thousands of graves. We visited the Garden of Gethsemane; upon this spot, as we stood with bowed heads by the old olive which by all indications is hundreds and hundreds of years old, our minds ran back to the hours that Jesus spent here in prayer—where the spiritual battles of the world were fought out. We visited Calvary; there are three places called Calvary and for an absolute certainty we do not know which is correct. Near the place the Protestants accept as Calvary is the tomb that is called Joseph's Tomb (See Matthew, twenty-seventh chapter, fifty-seventh verse,) where the body of Jesus was placed when taken from the cross. I am glad that when you visit this spot you do not see such performances as when you visit the Calvary of the Roman Catholics and the Greek Orthodox Churches.

THE ASCENSION.

On the top of this mountain from which Jesus ascended, they have the spot marked whether it be the correct one or not, and on it is a round-shaped building that you have to pay to enter as you do all the other places. As we stood on this mount we could see the Dead Sea and the River Jordan, and also had a very fine view of the city of Jerusalem. To me we were standing on Holy Ground and I thought of the time when Jesus shall come again and receive His own unto Himself.

Places Visited Mentioned in the Old Testament.

Hebron, thirty-five miles south of Jerusalem, a town of a few hundred people, is a very beautiful place. In this town John the Baptist was born; here David was made king and lived for seven years before moving the site of government to Jerusalem. In this historical spot are the graves and tombs of Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebecca, Jacob and Leah; also the grave of Abner, who was David's great general; between this town and Jerusalem is the grave of Rachel, Jacob's beloved wife who died at Benjamin's birth. From this time on Jacob's troubles were never ended. To our surprise many Jews were standing around Rachel's grave, weeping and reading the Old Testament. We visited the old oak where the angel of the Lord appeared to Abraham and Sarah and promised them a son, and from all indications this tree might be a few thousand years old. Between here and the city of Jerusalem are the three pools claimed to be King Solomon's pools. They are now full of water and from them the water flows to the city of Jerusalem. On our way back to the city, about five miles out, we had a house pointed out to us which was said to be the old homestead of Zacharias.

Between Jerusalem and Nazareth we passed many historical spots in connection with the Old Testament. One was the valley where King Saul was fighting when Samuel told him he would be killed. We passed over the road where Joseph and Mary were travelling when they discovered that Jesus was not along. We went through the hills of Ephraim where there are many olive orchards, some containing as many as ten thousand trees. Our attention was called to the place where Jacob wrestled with the Angel. We came to Jacob's well, a description of which you will find in the fourth chapter of John. They claim this is the same old well where Jesus met the Samaritan woman and she became a Christian and a soul-winner. As we examined this well and the surroundings we were satisfied that this was the old original well. Very near here stands Joseph's tomb; as you will recall, his bones were brought back from Egypt and buried here.

We viewed Mt. Tabor. Our attention was directed to the road and place where Joseph was sold by his brothers, and scores of other places that we might mention if we had the time. However, I cannot leave this point without saying something about the little town where Jonah was born and reared, which we could see from the roadside; the village of Nain where the widow's son was raised by Elijah; also the place where Jesus performed his first miracle—at the marriage feast when he changed water into wine. And last but not least, Mt. Carmel.

Mt. Carmel towers above Haifa, a city of between ten and fifteen thousand people—a beautiful, up to date and clean city. From here to Jerusalem the distance is one hundred and sixteen miles. It was on Mt. Carmel that Elijah met the test with the worshipers of Baal's prophets and four hundred of them were put to death. This is a great and interesting story, but it would take so much space to cover it that I am going to ask you to read First Kings, seventeenth and eighteenth chapters.

In conclusion, Palestine is a great country and there are many good religious people within its borders.

but the natives as a whole will disgust you as you ride along and see the caves in which they live, or when they do live in a house how filthy and nasty it is—their B. C. way of doing things and their B. C. manner of living. However, I am thankful from my heart that we have encouraging reports from our missionaries in this country.

A Few Observations of My Trip as a Whole.

I wish space would permit me to give all of my impressions, but such a thing is out of the question.

The British Isles and Scandinavia are making great progress, as we see it, along the lines of religion and religious work, but all Southern Europe is in a horrible condition. By that we mean Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Greece and a few of those nations nearby Greece. Beyond question they will be tangled in another war in less than five years, and from my point of view we want to forever stay out of the entanglement. The fact is that nations which sanction the things they do and go into the depths of sin as destruction. It occurs to me that the three things prominent in their minds are as follows: Drinking, which means beer, wine and liquors; women, which means sin in its awful form; and war, which of course means blood, death and destruction. These three things are so evident in the nations last mentioned that it is almost impossible to come to any other conclusion. May our God somehow, in some mysterious way, check them.

HOW THIS STORE SERVES ALL THE PUBLIC

There are many ways in which a store may serve the people

Keeping up the standard of the merchandise is one

Keeping the prices down to the lowest possible notch is another

Then there is the duty of selecting the right styles; of providing ample selections; of employing salesmen with taste and intelligence to help you in your purchase and fit you correctly

We are never satisfied here unless every customer goes out of our store with the clothes that are best for him; unless he has received his money's worth in style as well as quality—in short, unless he is well dressed

Our prices on suits, overcoats, shoes, hats and furnishings will stand the acid test

Let us show you

MISSISSIPPI STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 5, 1923.
Weekly News letter from the State Department of Education, by W. F. Bond, Superintendent.

House Bill No. 170, Acts of 1920 reads as follows: "Be it enacted by the legislature of the State of Mississippi that the flag of the United States shall be displayed either within or without every school building. The School Board of each school district shall provide in such manner as they may see fit for the flag and its display."

Thus it will be noticed that under

YOUR TEETH

MISSISSIPPI STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

Bureau of Child Welfare Division of Mouth Hygiene.

PERMANENT TEETH

When your permanent teeth are all in place, nature has finished her tooth job. You have your share of teeth and if you don't take care of them, you will either have to do without teeth or use artificial ones. Who wants to do without teeth? Certainly, you and we don't. Besides, it is not very pleasant to have them taken out.

Your permanent teeth are a wonderful mechanism. They masticate your food, give shape and expression to your face and distinction to your voice. The loss of even one tooth is a very serious injury, but the loss of more than one is a calamity. The longer you live, the more you need your teeth.

Chewing Gum

By Rea Proctor McGee, D. D. S., M. D. Editor "Oral Hygiene."

The teeth and jaws and salivary glands and all of the mechanism of the mouth were made for a useful purpose.

We have so many tasks for the mouth the mastication is not so popular as it formerly was. Nothing we have ever done as an energy waster equals the chewing gum habit.

Everywhere there are hundreds and thousands and millions of jaws with a chronic motion, that ranges from the gentle tremble of an almost impassive face to the enthusiastic "squash" of the "mug" that doesn't care for tooth substance, energy, time and saliva wasted. And what of the law the trustees are required to see that their school is provided with a flag. In connection with the devotional exercises every morning it would be a fine thing to have all the children stand at attention and repeat together the pledge to the flag as follows:

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all."

the tantalized stomach?

Should not the Society for the prevention of the Broken Promises to the stomach step in and do something?

Chewing all day with nothing to swallow; The jaws get all of the exercise they need at meal time and in conversation. Why not use the chewing gum energy in some useful manner?

Wherever you go—stores, railway stations, churches, theaters, offices—you find gum stuck around to wait the return of its former owners; rugs, carpets and floors are ruined with gum.

When you do go to the dentist; or to anyone else for that matter, leave your gum at home.

All that chewing gum does is to make good teeth bad and bad teeth worse.

AND THE MINISTER BLUSHED

In a certain New England village where the Sunday church attendance was small lived a young widow who had taken quite a fancy to the minister. She could see that he also cared for her, but was evidently too shy to say anything. One Sunday evening the congregation was smaller than usual. After the services the clergyman said to the widow: "Did you like my sermon?"

"It was beautiful," she replied. "I wish more people would come," he said.

She saw her chance. "So do I," she answered. "Why, tonight, every time you said 'dearly beloved' I—I positively blushed."—Pathfinder.

STELLA VITAE ENDED TROUBLE

Mrs. Lott Enjoying Best of Health Since Taking Stella Vitae.

"My health is better now than it has been in years and it was nothing but Stella Vitae that brought me around," said Mrs. R. S. Lott, a resident of Wiggins, Miss.

"Eight months ago I was suffering terribly from painful and delayed menstruation which had been worrying me for a long time. My head ached dreadfully at times, and those bearing-down pains all through my body made me miserable night and day.

"I took one bottle of Stella Vitae and felt so much better that I tried two more and now I am enjoying the best of health. My periods are regular and all those pains and aches are gone."

Stella Vitae may be obtained from any druggist and the purchase price will be refunded if it fails to bring relief.

FORMER GREADIAN GIVES INFORMATIVE DATA AN TAXATION

"9. How about your County schools, and what per cent of your revenue is used for school purposes?

"10. What is the condition of your farmers; are they prosperous, and are they pursuing practically the same policy or methods now that they did, say 25 years ago?

"11. What are the principal farm products and how are they marketed?

"12. Are any number of your farmers engaged in the dairying business?

"I know I am asking quite a deal of you, but I feel sure that you would be glad to furnish any information that might be helpful to Grenada County and the people of Mississippi. With your permission, I may publish your reply, for which allow me to thank you in advance.

"Things are moving along serenely in Mississippi. There are some who think too serenely. Our crops are short; I doubt that we shall make exceeding 3500 bales of cotton in Grenada County whereas a normal crop is around 10,000 bales. The corn crop, too, is almost a failure. Business is good in Grenada with our merchants, but we have some big saw mills which are turning loose much coin in these parts just now."

Mr. Brown's answer: "I have been so busy since receiving your letter have been forced to delay answering. Had to have some information gotten up in the meantime anyway. You can rest assured it is a pleasure to answer the questions. All true Ashevilleans are always ready to do that, for we are proud to be such, and a part of the Old North State.

"Answering your questions:

"1. Supervisor—through assessing board of usually three men.

"2. $5,070,700.00, water 1,054,000.00; market 35,000.00; incinerator 100,700.00; Floating Bonds 504,000.00; Street Improvement 1,710,000.00; Schools 1,154,000.00; Sewerage 463,000.00; Fire Dept 50,000.00.

"3. $3,726,000.00, Road and Bridge Bonds 2,174,000.00; Funding Bonds 1,238,000.00; Refunding Bonds 188,000.00; Court House 50,000.00; County Home 30,000.00; Jail 31,000.00; Childrens' Home 25,000.00; Buncombe County School Bonds separate from above 322,000.00.

"4. It is impossible to give a general explanation of the issuance of bonds as each class of bonds has its own particular law. The County Commissioners, however, are authorized under certain conditions to issue bonds on their own initiative. In other cases sufficient notice must be given in the newspapers and voted upon by the electorate, same voting on this as voting in a general election.

"5. No record. Average is small. Fellow with few hundred acres up here considered rich.

Yes—assessed higher.

"6. Population of county 64,148, area in sq. miles 639 or 408,960 acres.

"7. Liable to double taxation. We have a Revenue Dept and the official who has charge of this is known as the Commissioner of Revenue. He, however, does not function as does the Revenue officer of Mississippi in checking back taxes paid by individuals, except as applied to our income tax. Back taxes for the County are collected by the County official. Reports are sent from the County to the State Auditor, who audits the books and sees that all expenditures comply with the State laws.

"Explanation of State taxes:

"The State of N. C. gets revenue from an income tax on individual incomes exceeding $2000.00, and what is known as a corporation income tax. This is handled very similarly to the government income tax. The State does not share in the taxes collected by the County. The roads are built from the revenue collected from an automobile tax and tax on gasoline.

"About school bonds for the County they are kept separate from the general indebtedness. This is handled by the County School Commissioners, and present bonds amount to 322,000.00.

"8. 6 per cent. Money on deposit is not exempt from taxation.

"9. 44 per cent.

"10. Condition of farmers good. Yes—prosperous. No, they are up to date.

"11. We have quite a number of farmers engaged in the dairying business, but no figures along this line.

"Our increase in assessment you refer to is actual. Read the enclosed pamphlets. Would guess at the per cent of total value being about 65 per cent more likely less.

"80 cents was the rate made by the County, City raised its rate to $1.10.

"Asheville, according to 1920 census, had a population 28504. In 1910, Asheville's population was 18,762, hence it will be seen that its growth in 10 years was 51.9 per cent while Buncombe County's gain in 10 years was 28.8 per cent. Buncombe County, by 1920 census had a population of 64,143.

"Have no objections to your publishing this. In fact we are rather proud of ourselves and love for the rest of the world to know how we are getting along.

"Timbered lands can be bought here at from $15 to $75.00 per acre. Farm lands can be bought here at from $20 to $150. per acre, according to improvements, quality and proximity to highways and railroads.

"Our County has 164 miles hard surfaced roads 18 feet wide and the authorities expect to add 35 miles more this year. Total assessed value of property Buncombe County is $93,493,572.

"Looking forward to seeing you and all my good friends early in November. Best wishes and kindest regards,

"Your friend,
"CHESTER BROWN"

GRENADA BEATS COLLEGE HILL

Grenada Hi defeated College Hill Agricultural High School in a game of Football Friday to the tune of 38 to 6.

After the whistle blew at the starting of the game there never was a doubt about who would win, as the Grenada team went in with plenty of "Pep" and fighting spirit. The game was well played all the way through by both sides. College Hill's men were heavier than Grenada's but they were outplayed by the locals from the very start. College Hill's only score came in the last two minutes of play when a pass was intercepted in an open field and easily carried over for a touch down.

HOG CHOLERA NEWS

During the past month few cases of hog cholera have been reported. At this time of the year the losses from this disease are not very great. However, the disease may attack the herd at any time, therefore, the farmer should be constantly watching his hogs for symptoms of disease as cholera is still the most serious menace to successful hog raising.

If any of your hogs appear sick it is well to call some competent person to diagnose the case so that the proper treatment may be given before the entire herd becomes affected.

Hog cholera can be prevented by the proper use of serum and virus. This treatment should be used before the animal becomes infected as it is a preventative rather than a cure. Sick hogs may be benefitted by large doses of serum but this method is expensive and not very satisfactory.

The State Live Stock Sanitary Board in cooperation with the Federal Government desires to assist the farmer with his hog problems and are willing to send men to Farmers meetings to explain diseases of swine and methods of control, also make investigations and advise the farmer regarding the care of his hogs.

GRENADIANS WILL BE SEEN ON SCREEN

The Grenada Opera House has recently purchased a moving picture camera and within the next ten days will commence photographing different people in Grenada, in various poses and activities, showing the completed pictures at the opera house on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 13 and 14, in connection with the picture "Hollywood," a film story of moviedom, a very recent Paramount release that has met with such generous approbation wherever it has been shown.

After the film is exhibited here, it will be forwarded on to Hollywood, California, there to be personally reviewed by Jesse L. Lasky, vice president of the Famous Players Corporation, producers of Paramount pictures, with his able corps of director experts including Cecil DeMille, William DeMille, James Cruze, Joseph Henaberry and others with the view of locating additional movie talent to be added to their forces. Mr. Lasky wired Mr. Williams, manager of the Grenada Opera House, this week as follows: "My staff and self will review results of screen tests of local talent you are taking in connection with 'Hollywood' and will give you all possible co-operation."

This is an opportunity for those in Grenada and surrounding territory who think they have the ability and who want to go into the movies or to see themselves on the screen to have their photos made in their most desirable poses and learn whether or not they will be able to realize their ambition to enter filmdom.

There is no doubt but there is a wealth of talent around Grenada—plenty of it—and this is the time to decide once and for all time whether or not Grenada is to be represented in the movie world. Anyone is eligible to enter, man, woman or child—and those who are interested should get in touch immediately with the management of the Grenada Opera House or leave their names and addresses at the box office.

Wealth That Works

Money saved and deposited in a bank is wealth that works. Wealth that works is capital. Unlike brain and muscle, it does not wear out or deteriorate. It grows and improves.

The only gain from labor is what is saved. Labor, therefore, makes wealth and when wealth works it is capital.

Capital at work pays wages, which, when saved, creates more capital. Labor is the producer when labor saves.

Savings bring independence. A savings bank is a public servant.

"Send me some more Dainty! I know it's pure."

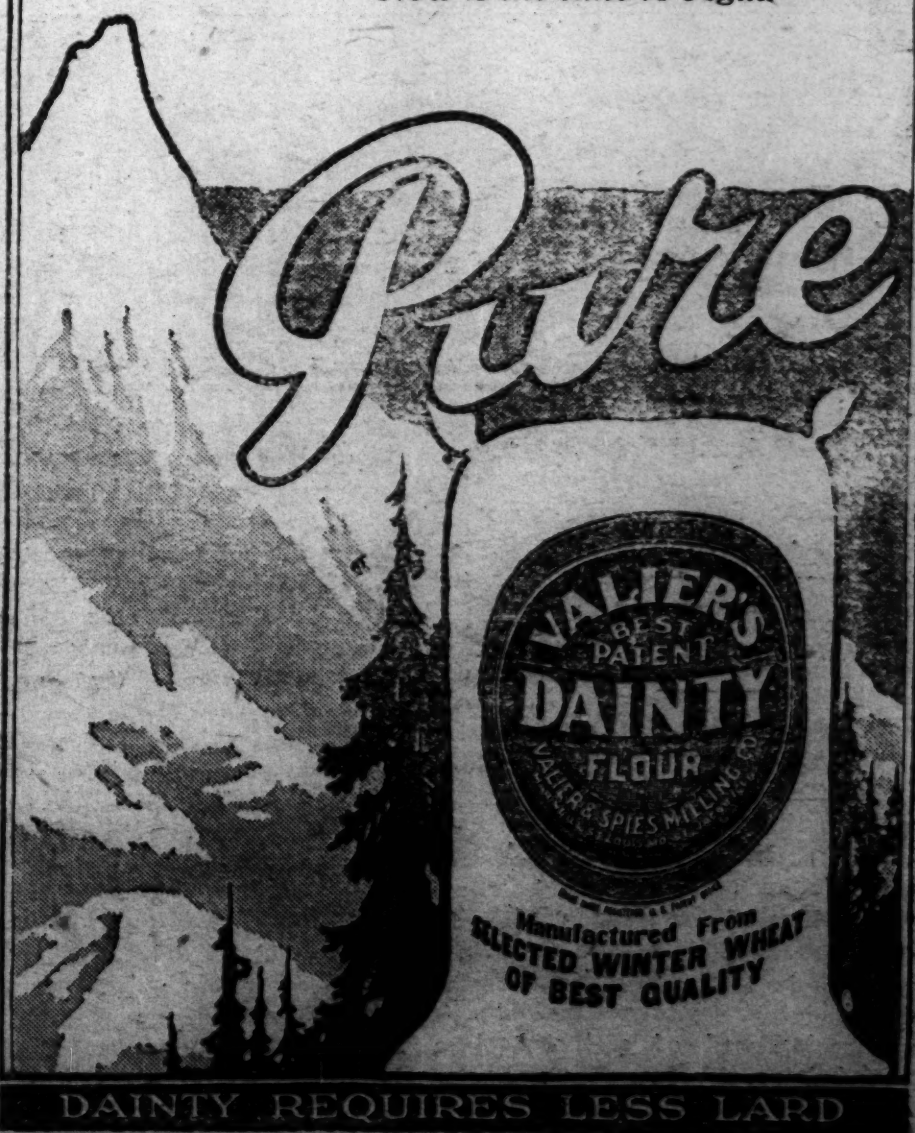

"I remember you said Dainty is just the best part of the finest wheat, with nothing added.

"Why should they put phosphate or anything else in Dainty? They couldn't improve it, no matter what they added. Dainty is better than I ever thought flour could be,—and it's absolutely pure.

"My biscuits, cakes, pies and cookies have a perfectly delicious flavor since I have been using Dainty—the flavor of that fine wheat. In fact, they are better in every way. You'll never hear me ask for ordinary flour again."

The difference between the price of Dainty and ordinary flour is less than it has been in years, due to favorable crop conditions.

If you are not yet a user of Dainty, Now is the time to begin.
